Mentor-Mentee

Policy

As per our Vision and Mission, to develop Teachers who are capable of catering local and global needs in field of education, College had made policy for Mentor -Mentee system through which, to provide support and assurance to student who are in role of mentee. At the beginning of academic year as first year admission is completed, allocation of mentee to Mentors for the academic year is allotted. Mentor interact with the allocated mentee personally and tries to understand their academic, educational needs as well as their strength and weaknesses. Mentor also categories mentee in to various criteria as like advance learner, slow learner, special student, gifted learner etc. further throughout the academic year Mentor plays the role of guide, philosopher and supporter for allotted mentees. Mentees are allowed to feel free for sharing their academic, personal issues with mentor and discuss the situation. Mentor tries to resolve the issues if the problems under his/her control or in jurisdictions otherwise consults the higher authorities to discuss and sort out the issue. The decision is be taken unanimously regarding resolving the problem. In this way throughout the course and for all groups of mentor-mentee same policy is applied effectively and provided proper support to mentee as per the solutions of their academic, educational needs as well as their personal requirements too. It is really helping to understand our mentee (student trainee) properly

Mentor Mentee System

Procedure

As per the policy made for Mentor-Mentee system, mentees are allotted to mentors equally at the beginning of academic year. By the time of course, mentors try to identify by formal and informal interaction, observations in various situation about advance learners, slow learners, their problems, their strength and weaknesses. Apart from this some mentees approach to mentors regarding their problems and difficulties, then mentors try to resolve it if the issues are at their level. Mentor with the help of discussion, interaction, guidance, and minor actions, talking with parents resolve the issues. If the problems are severe mentor consults to the higher authorities and sort out after discussion. Till the completion of course mentors take follow up of their allotted mentees and at the end of course submit the report to Principal. In this way the procedure is followed for Mentor-Mentee system.
