The course Pedagogy of English is an endeavour to develop an understanding of the nature of English language and the importance of teaching of English. The course will enable the teachers to comprehend the theory and practices of teaching of English and critically reflect on their practices in order to make teaching more effective and innovative.

All the students are motivated and compelled to speak, discuss, interact as far as possible only in English so that fluency is developed amongst the student teachers along with focus on developing higher level of language skills which are necessary for an English teacher of secondary schools.

Our students are benefitted and gradually improves reading comprehension, boosts critical thinking skills, communication skills, develops positive classroom atmosphere. Due to regular practise of listening, speaking, reading and writing student teachers develop the self-confidence and this will lead them to a high demand in their teaching jobs not only within the country but also globally.

English teacher trainees are equipped with the latest knowledge and skills in the field of English language teaching to provide global perspectives on the professional aspects of English language teaching. Our students are given wide knowledge of how to handle the complex situations during teaching.

Our library is well equipped with English pedagogy books of various authors, grammar books, literature books, communication skills books, improve language, vocabulary books, idioms, proverbs, quotes books, novel, drama, fiction books, secondary school books. Apart from these regular and direct books, the library is well acquainted with reference books, encyclopaedias, journals, periodicals, newspapers, magazines etc.

Students of English methodology are very much in demand in government, private schools of UT of Dadra and Nagar Haveli and Daman and Diu. Majority of the students are hired before completing their S.Y. B. Ed. exams through college placement cell. Also, maximum number of students every year clear their TET and CTET exams.
