5.4.2: Report of Alumni Participation

MOTIVATING THE FRESHLY ENROLLED STUDENTS

SSR alumni group has been boosting the confidence of current students and fostering their morale to try out possible avenues and appear for possible available opportunities. With the help of different seminars and alumni meet, the group motivates the current students and also enlightens them with current trends going on in the pedagogies and various skills that a fresh graduate should have before joining the school or colleges .

On very first day of college during B.Ed. orientation session our alumni Sadhana Barai and Pavan Prasad working in Government school ,DNH , motivated our freshly enrolled students to take part in various activities .Also focused on required competencies and skills of teacher.

INVOLVEMENT IN THE IN-HOUSE CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

Feedback on curriculum is taken by alumni. That is analyzed and if any suggestions received from the analysis are incorporated to the Board of Education of SPPU ,Pune .So that any addition or deleting of content can be communicated to the Dean of Interdisciplinary faculty of SPPU, Pune.

ORGANIZATION OF VARIOUS ACTIVITIES OTHER THAN CLASS ROOM ACTIVITIES

Alumni who are having certain skills are invited by the college as a guest. For eg. Workshop on rangoli, lippen Work, Cultural Exchange ,Art and craft etc. By teaching such skills to current students alumni tries to contribute .many times college invite prominent alumni as a judge of competitions.

During last academic year Ms. Krutika Palsetia alumni of our college was invited as resource person for cultural exchange program on 12/04/2022. In which she taught various mudras and basic steps of Bharatnattiyam .

SUPPORT TO CURRICULUM DELIVERY

Giving orientation and demonstration of various skills, integration lessons, TBT lessons ,TT lessons is the soul of B.Ed. curriculum .So to conduct a demonstration of any lesson prominent alumni are invited. In this way they support in curriculum delivery.

During last academic year our college invited prominent alumni Ms. Nalini Patel on 15/07/2021 for delivering a demo of simulation lesson.
